

GLOBALISM

by Vytautas Petkevičius

Our generation has lived through the most cruel, most murderous World War II, in which two global ideologies, Communism and National Socialism, struggled. Strange, but nowadays the same forces are rising as allegedly renewed global ideas. The wish to rule the world is a very old idea. Many rulers and many empires tried to accomplish it but with no success. It was most clearly and very understandably expressed and written in their holy scripture (the Talmud) in the name of God by the Jews:

I will put you above other nations.

This superhuman ideology of Aryans, chosen, anointed, summoned by God, is being very widely and purposefully used up to this day by the Zionists, although, to tell the truth, they have never rejected it... The Chosen People... and that's all, a war after a war, a revolution after a revolution – that's how the bloody escalation of this Zionist-inspired idea is taking place.

Marx yesterday, and Soros today.

After World War II, in 1946, when the State of Israel was established, it seemed that the Jewish question was solved once and for all. Many nations, that felt a great guilt for the mass massacre of the Jews, tried to heal the wound in many ways. There were many diplomatic apologies, material and moral compensations. Antisemitism was soon to be forgotten. It became immoral to abuse the Jews, who suffered so much and stayed alive only by a miracle.

The rebirth of antisemitism

But eventually the situation started to change. From the most disadvantaged nation, the Jews became the most aggressive one in the Arab world. World Zionism started to lead this hard and for the citizens of Israel unbearable burden of war, and step by step reinstated the old and almost forgotten Jewish categories of evaluation. The aggressiveness of the Zionists touched not only the Arabs, they also organized globalism, which gives birth to hatred among big and small nations. As an antidote to Jewish power, nationalism, fascism and chauvinism rose from their graves. Organizations that support these spiritual perversions appeared... And everything started again. Legends about expulsion of the Jews from Egypt, the rage of Torquemada, the tsarist pogroms and delusions of Hitler, that come into the brains of inexperienced teenagers, resurface again.

But one cannot blame only these upstarts. It is usually not the cause, but only the result of incorrect ethnic policy. If we look deeper into this problem, we can see, even with a naked eye, a Jewish wish to keep everything that way. The Jews are taking the issue of antisemitism's survival into their hands again. Numerous antisemitic publications have appeared. Strange, but about 80% of the authors are Jewish. Not only Jews, but also their biblical cousins the Arabs, Phoenicians, Arameans and partly Georgians are called Semites. They are linked by the similarity of their languages, as we and the Latvians and Prussians are linked by the similarity of the Baltic languages. There is no political or religious aspect in that evaluation. It is the common point of view among linguists.

According to the political aspect alone, Jews themselves are the greatest antisemites and have been exterminating their Arab cousins for more than a hundred years. Antisemitism is the ideology of Jewish existence. If there were no antisemitism, there would be no essence uniting the Jews. If Jews were not noticed by anyone, abused and persecuted, they would quickly assimilate and disappear among the great nations. They themselves instigate antisemitism which forces them to organize, to unite and to live in closed channels. Maksim Gorky wrote to some purpose: "Every Jew is born in order to instigate antisemitism among other nations."

Finally, we have to make a distinction between Semitism and Zionism. Zionism equals Fascism. It is an ideology which exalts the Jewish people and despises other nations. We have just got rid of world Communism, organized by the Jews, and already Globalism, organized by the Zionists, has made its appearance. It is the same Aryan ideology, that aspires to dictate its will to all the world. If you don't believe me, read the Talmud more attentively.

What does "God's Chosen People" mean?

These are the same Aryan fascists, Uebermenschen, supermen summoned to rule over others. Why do I have to accept a norm forced over Judeo-Catholics, to offer my left ear after receiving a blow to the right one? Let the inventors of such slavish ideology offer at least their butts for a good kick. Who schemed and executed the revolution in Russia? In Lenin's first government there were 42 Jewish commissars out of 47 in total, together with F. Dzerzhinsky, a Pole, and Berzinis, a Latvian, Smilga, a Lithuanian, and a couple of Georgians. At the apogee of his power Leiba Trotsky wrote: "We must turn Russia into a desert, where white slaves would live, under such a tyranny that the most horrible oriental despots haven't dreamt up. The difference is that the tyranny will be not of the Right, but of the Left and not White but Red. We will shed such rivers of blood that all of the human loss in the capitalist wars will be nothing against it. The biggest bankers (also Jews) on the other side of the ocean will work in close contact with us. If we win the revolution, we will crush Russia, and over the broken tombstones we will create the rule of Zionism and all the world will kneel before it."

But all the world was not needed, because J. Stalin appeared. Let's go back into the past a little bit.

The creation of Israel

Read the documents that the Zionists signed with the Hitlerists. Israel was practically created by persecutions of Jews in Europe, just that A. Hitler put way too much effort into it. It is proved by the escape of wealthy Jews from Hungary. The numbers of Holocaust victims, thought up by the Zionists, are too big, but it is done in order to justify the politics of Zionism.

The idea of recreation of the Jewish state arose in 1917, when the leader of Zionism, the Trebecius-Lincoln Jew Moses Pinkele read the Declaration of Balfour, the English foreign secretary (also a Jew). It was only a minister's letter to his friend, the millionaire Rothschild. Things were very much simplified in that document: the Brits give land in Palestine, Zionists send their people there, everything is financed by the multimillionaire and everybody together will rebuild the homeland, where there should be enough space for all the Jews. In this way both Jews and other nations would regain peace.

But Zionist Jews did not obey the center and did not go to the promised land. They tried to create a Bavarian Soviet republic led by Kurt Eisner or Kosmonovsky and Eugene Levine-Nysen. The nonsense they did in Bavaria later brought Hitler to power. Birobidjan was created in Russia. So the leaders of Zionism started to look for means to force their co-nationals to go to Palestine. Only when A. Hitler rose to power did such a possibility appear. The Zionist leader Moses Pinkele met the Fuehrer, gave him 300.000 marks in order to buy the newspaper "Voelkische Beobachter" and personally asked "to put some pressure" on German Jews and then pointed his finger at the Fuehrer and said:

"Something can pan out from antisemitism if Jews take this matter into their hands."

Hitler did not bargain for a long time, and the Hungarian Jew Haloshy, also known by the name of Oland Paloshy, took the newly bought Nazi party newspaper into his hands. A real son of a rabbi and an old friend of the Jew Alfred Rosenberg was hiding under that surname. Hitler had nothing to do, because he offered himself for such a role when he wrote Mein Kampf. He boasted: "I believe that today I embody the plan of the Almighty creator: by getting rid of the Jews, I fight for the Lord's cause." God is God, the plan to settle the "Promised Land" was not just dug up from the earth.

The prosperity of Jews in Germany

On what was such a strange contract based? On the eve of 1933 Jews amounted to one percent of the population of Germany. But there were more than 50% of them in the press, cinema and banking. In Berlin, 55% of lawyers and 52% of medical doctors were Jewish. Fifteen Jews had 718 posts on the boards of major companies. In one word, they lived very well and never dreamed of going to some unknown country. What is more, religious motives prevented it as well, because there were many baptized Jews in Germany. At that time, the "Jewish World" declared such Zionist regulations as: "A Jew remains a Jew even after changing religion. A Christian who accepts Judaism does not become a Jew, because a Jew is not a religious but a racial concept, so a non-religious Jew and even an atheist Jew remains the same Jew as any kind of a rabbi."

On Hitler's orders, the contacts between the Gestapo, led by Reinhard Heydrich, and the Jewish self-defense organization Hagana in Palestine got underway and grew into close cooperation. It would not have been so successful if A. Eichmann hadn't disclosed his sources of information to the antisemites. In his report he wrote: "The World Zionist Organization, that unites various parties and unions, is ruled from an intelligence and control center, which has a very important role in the political life of the Jews. This centre is called "Hagana" which means "self-defense."

One of the Zionists who negotiated intensively in Berlin was called Shkolnik. It was a pseudonym of the future Israeli prime minister Levi Eshkol. In the summer of 1965 he confessed to the "Spiegel" magazine: "I was with them only for a certain time, during the initial period of Hitler's regime."

The leader of this Jewish self-defense organization was Faivel Polkes, born in Poland, who had the military rank of commander in the Hagana, and SD Hauptscharfuhrer. Adolf Eichmann met him for the first time in February 1937 in Berlin. Both Jews confirmed their brotherly union in the "Trauke" restaurant near the zoological garden.

Jewish emigration to Palestine

Eichmann provided this written confirmation to a Jewish underground fighter: "Pressure will be put on the Jewish representatives in the German Reich, so that it would force the Jews emigrating from Germany to go to Palestine and not to some other land. This measure corresponds to German interests and the Gestapo is ready to implement such measures."

Faivel Polkes invited his new friend Eichmann to see his old homeland, so on 2 October 1937 a certain writer, a correspondent of the "Berliner Tagblatt", as Eichmann called himself, got off the steamship Romania at Haifa. He met various people and reported upon his return: "The radical German policy is applauded in the Jewish nationalist milieu because it brought so many Jews to Palestine that they will soon outnumber the Arabs."

After gaining experience and rising up the ranks, SS officer Adolf Eichmann moved into the Rothschild Palace in Vienna after the Austrian Anschluss. With his Jewish collaborators he organized a "Jewish emigrant center" and very soon there were only a few left of the 200,000 Austrian Jews. Later it was even nicer. After the occupation of Sudetenland and the whole of Czechoslovakia half a year later, this emigration specialist moved into the building of the Council of the Religious Israelite Communities in Prague and founded a bureau with 32 sections, calling it "The Central Council for Solving Jewish Questions in Czekhia and Moravia." Here too, almost only Jews were employed. Eichmann set a task to his employees: 300 Jews to leave daily; what is more, the emigrants of course had to pay for their trip themselves.

Hitler, who knew about the Zionist plans, sent his man Shacht (also a Jew) to London. He had to discuss some details and the future financing of antisemitism with "Samuel Co Samuel" bank. When Lord Brysted, earlier called Mark Samuel, heard about this strange plan, he asked for a few days in order to think about the proposal and to discuss it with Chaim Weizmann, the chairman of the World Zionist Congress.

“Meshuge,” swore the Zionist leader, when he heard his doubts. “I’m asking, who will go to Palestine? I’d rather see the German Jews die, not the Jewish state of Israel.”

The Jew Reinhart Heydrich got the idea that Jews should have to wear a yellow star that would remind them about their real homeland from a Jewish-Greek admiral Canaris, the head of the Abwehr and foreign intelligence.

Jews in Hungary

Before the beginning of the war there were about 400,000 Jews in Hungary and in 1944 there were more than one million of them. At that time Eichmann arrived in Budapest. He immediately came into contact with “Vadach,” one of the Jewish refugee organizations that would send Jews out of Hungary with faked documents. From three leaders of this organization, Komel, an engineer, Kostner, a writer, and Yonel Brand, a trader of hosiery, Eichmann chose Brand, because the SS knew him from the old days. He was arrested in Berlin after the Reichstag fire and later set free by an agreement.

“I can sell the Hungarian Jews to you,” Eichmann proposed, boasting about exiling Jews from many countries.

On 29 May 1961, during the Eichmann trial in Jerusalem Yonel Brand recalled:

“He called me to him and proposed a deal. He was ready to sell a million Jews to us, goods for blood, as he said. When asking, he made a mistake in language, that even now resounds in my ears. He asked: ‘What do you need, men capable of producing’ (instead of saying ‘capable of inseminating’)? Children? The elderly? Speak!’ I behaved not very diplomatically because I was very shocked by such a proposal. I said that it was not for me to decide who should stay alive and who not. I would like to save everybody. Then Eichmann said: “So what do you prefer, goods or blood? Now I cannot sell more than a million, maybe later.”

The Jewish Plot against White people

I do not want to judge the actions of the Jews described here. God is their judge, but I cannot be silent when those horrific experiments with their own people, that bloody business in the name of Jewish statehood, are not condemned in Israel itself. They even try to justify it by various means. After all, it is the business of the Jews themselves, but we Lithuanians, whom they accuse as the nation of Jew-shooters in all the world, must know clearly how guilty our parents were in that fascist orgy and how guilty they were in the mutually organized Holocaust.

The Polish Jew David Grun, who called himself Benugurin and became the head of this state that was re-established after 2000 years, tried to turn the last page of the history of the creation of Israel in a very strange way. He declared:

“A Jew that does not live in Israel lives in sin!”

To put it concisely: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery... First, do not have any other gods before me...

And that only god of theirs very honestly led them to the Promised Land, but only after the Egyptians expelled them all as a menace to the statehood of Egypt.

Having learnt at home and wandered around the world, they are now preparing to rule that world. It happened a few times in Palestine, and in Europe. Nowadays something similar is also happening, although that crazy theory of Globalism was almost always alive among them.

In 1952, when the nations of the world were being terrorized by the Cold War, when the ghost of atomic war arose over humankind, a convention of rabbis took place in Budapest. One of its organizers Rabbi Emanuel Rabinovich said: “We have to understand that our strongest weapon is racial disagreements. If we reason with the dark skinned races for a long time (pointing out that they have been suffering violence and exploitation by the white man), we will be able to pass our racial conception to them. In America we are hoping to win by special means. We will instigate Negroes against the Whites and at the same time we will try to implant a guilt complex to the Whites for the suffering and exploitation of Negroes. Next we will help the Negroes to seek progress in all spheres of life, in every profession, in the world of sport and entertainment. With such prestige, Negroes will be able to marry white women freely and prepare the basis for another process, which will fully allow us to reach our main goal in America.

“Already today I can say to you that the last generation of white children is now being born. Our organizational committees, in the name of peace and reduction of racial tension, will prohibit the intercourse of White people only with other Whites. In this way the White race will disappear, because the miscegenation of Blacks and Whites will be the cause of the extinction of the White people and our most dangerous enemy will remain only a memory. Then a thousand years of our era, years of peace and abundance, of Pax Judaica, and our race will rule all the world with no exceptions. Our superior intellect will allow us to rule over the world populated with less educated people.”

That is what the real biblical Zionism is, that is why the freedom tree of other nations is so often watered with the blood of tyrants and patriots.

Where does terrorism come from?

One could make jokes from such crazy theories but they have been partly confirmed by Israeli prime minister Ariel Sharon on 3 October 2001. When asked by his cabinet about further Israeli-American military cooperation and its prospects, he declared: “Don’t forget that the Jewish people rule America, and Americans know it very well.” That’s where the idea of “world terrorism” originated from, an idea that allows Americans and Israelites to do whatever they want with the Arabs and forbids Arabs to defend themselves from those attackers by any means. 9/11 is a new provocation of the type of “Lusitania” and of Pearl Harbor, that allows one to declare war on anybody.

Hitler, who started out in Gleiwitz, built his thousand year Reich in a similar way. My generation has not yet forgotten what came out of it. The people of Israel should understand that there is no point in eternal war with the Arabs because sooner or later the Arabs will join forces and then no Americas will help them...

There is one more painful rule in real life: every real or provoked tragedy has a very unpleasant side effect. It takes away from the people the ability to think rationally. After 9/11 there was only one thought in the head of Americans – to take revenge! Provocateurs understand it very well and call this disposition of all citizens patriotism. It doesn't matter from whom, it doesn't matter how, but all patriots suddenly need blood, it doesn't matter that truth is the first victim of war, in the echo of cannons it is replaced with the vilest propaganda that turns common sense into nothing. That's where all human misfortunes start, because the government forces them to give away some of their rights in order to take revenge for something that should not have happened in the first place. When will we understand that it is totally absurd to deny freedom in the name of freedom? The Lithuanian example illustrates this. Why has one to take revenge against the Russians and not the Stalins and Hitlers? They suffered from Stalinism as much as we did. But, apparently, revenge is very universal. It is most useful for dilettantes who try to push their way into power, who, when they already have some power, have only one rule: Whoever is not with us is against us.

So let us think coldly and unemotionally, how a prosperous state, isolated from the rest of the world by two oceans, managed to harm somebody and to cause such an awful reaction in other nations? Because force equals counterforce. Why Switzerland, that is in the middle of Europe, is not being attacked by any terrorists? Because they do not intrude in the business of others.

Americans themselves have to forbid their leaders from carrying out terrorist acts against peaceful residents of other countries and their own citizens in order not to provoke new terrorist responses which become similar to self-defense. They have to find a way to diminish the hate against America among the peoples of other countries. Patriotism alone not help here. All Americans have to understand that one cannot speak about patriotism without freedom and common sense, because patriotism driven to the level of absurdity is homemade fascism.

As Claire Wolfe writes: "America is at that awkward stage. It's too late to work within the system, but too early to shoot the bastards." This rule already applies to us as well.

And Lithuanians still do not avenge Stalin, but the Russians, and shoot at them with dirty patriotic bullets, national fireworks in the face of the petty Russians... By so shooting they have lost millions for transit, pay twice as much to Poles for oil, do not allow businessmen to work with Russia, and, Petras Vaitiekunas, minister of foreign affairs, scratches that pile of dung and cock-a-doodle-does:

"The goal of my life is to make Russia get used to democracy."

That peasant who learnt diplomacy from the local priest looks more like a Gypsy than a minister. He is experimenting with Lithuania as the gypsy experiments with his horse: to wean it off oats, hay, water and finally off life.

When God punishes someone, he takes away reason. And if there is no reason? Then all pockets fill up with American dollars...

I've heard that the Russians have prepared a demand for compensation for 150 years of occupation in the time of Gediminas and Vytautas...
